NANCY: MY SISTER YOU ARE YOUNG THAN ME! I'M MISS YOUR ANKLE WEIGHT AND BLOOD SHOT EYES IN TRIG. WELL I'M GRADUATING AND I WOULD BE ABLE TO KEEP AND I ON YOU (MY LITTLE SISTER) BUT KEEP ME UP ON THE LATEST GOSSIP AT SCHOOL NEXT YEAR. MY WILDEST DREAM AND FANTASY WOULD BE TO DATE MY SISTER NO INCEST JUST TO GO OUT AND HAVE A WILD TIME SEE YA THIS SUMMER

Nancy,
You really are a super person. I'm glad that we became close friends. You are such a crazy person, sometimes I don't believe the things you do. I wish the thing could have worked out between you and Joe. You are really a great high jumper. Hope to see you take conference champ next year. We can't let any of those sophmores or juniors beat us. Especially me. Have a great summer '82
Good Luck always Love

Nancy,

It has been more than fun having you in my typing class. With a personality like yours I know you'll go far. Just a few things might slow you down like being Polish, but thats OK maybe you'll marry an Italian and he will straighten you out. I know you'll go far in Basketball because "Baby your the best." (← whatsong) I intend on seeing you play some hoop next year so you better plan on being the Best! Hope to see you some time during the summer. If you ever want to talk "all you have to do is call" (whatsong), Im in the book. Good Luck next year

Love

Nancy Pazdziorko

Nancy Pazdziorko,

It has been very enjoyable having you in Trig. class even though you don't notice me. Maybe we will be in Calculus next year and you still won't notice me. I don't know what to write so I will write a new Polish Joke I heard. Here goes. What do you get when you cross a Polack with a one-legged Mongoloid. Here comes the punch line... A Poleroid one-step Ha ha Ha - no offence intended by this Joke. If it offends you you can tell me off and yell and scream at me

Good luck over the summer
See you next year
Mike Finn

Nancy, You and I have become really close this year and I'm glad. I never could wish how nice someone could be until you and I started having our little talks. "I only wish I would have listened to friends' advice -- then maybe Phil wouldn't hate me as he does." You are a one-of-a-kind-person. With all your talents and personality I know you will be a success. Please don't let the opposite gender bother you. (Take it from me! Gives me!) -- they let you down and all of a sudden they pull you down. O-Kaid? and who needs that? If only time could reverse itself and we could do things over again. Maybe then all the hurt could go away. Anyway you, Laura, Lynda, VIVI, Norm, Mary and everybody must see each other this summer. I really mean it, too. I think that, if I quit my job my insecurities about my friends may disappear. Sorry about all those parties and times I missed out. I was being pulled two ways, but I might have got things straightened out. Good Luck in all you strive for!

Love you,
Theresa Arini "82"

call us this summer 293-4903

P.S. - there's one thing about Jr. year I would like to change -- I wish I did not hurt people, espec. Phil, like I did.

P.S. SHUT UP I KNOW ITS THE WRONG PLACE BUT YA GOTTA CHECK OUT P.T. ON PAGE 153! IT'S GREEAATT!

Fance, (GOON)

You baby squad, how long am I gonna be stuck with such a goony bird of a best buddy?! JUST HOW LONG CAN I STAND IT?!!! Oh.... probably forever (LOVER!)? Anyway Nan, I know we don't really see each other as much as we used to (during school) but you better stop blaming it on Jim (OR ELSE PACK YA) because its as ONLY much your fault as mine — and you know it - you old trackstar homework head. Sooo — on to bigger, better, funner things old pal of mine!! This summer we are gonna have a great time (OR ELSE) right BUD!! Correctomundo! And you're coming up North with us if I have to smuggle you in a suitcase (LIKE ARNOLD). Let's see we've been (SOME pretty ugly) through pretty much this year huh Nan? Yep we've been through a lot. of course you've really been through a lot (OF GRIEF!) And I hope that you can always come to me with any problem of any kind so that even if I can't change it at least you'll know someone is behind you all the way NO MATTER WHAT. Kay Bud? Righteo! Lets see now, remind me never to go to Rocky Horror without toast that really burnt or with you! And don't forget Natalie's famous fall, confetti fights at football games, all the surprise parties last Summer and don't ever forget basketball camp at Adsis - Sienna Heights with the mummified nun and the all powerful United Moose of Sienna - all Hail!! Dana and Junie sure had a surprise one morning too! (WHAT A COUPLE OF SNEAKERS! IN TOO) And how about Mair Kels powder room and last but not least - The night the lights went out in GEORGIA - SLOW! TRIPLE SLOW! EVEN! oops almost forgot MELVIN OUR BEST BUD! Well Nan - there so much more to say that I really don't know how to say it. You're the greatest friend ever and I hope all your season turn out great next year - summer, winter, basketball, spring, track, boy chasing, fall, etc, etc. and try to fit me in somewhere too Kay? (GIRLS THE GATHERING IS A RAMMESS!)

SPEAKING OF SEASONS IN THE WORDS OF THE GREAT JAMES TAYLOR (JT) - YOU'VE GOT A FRIEND (FOREVER BABY!)

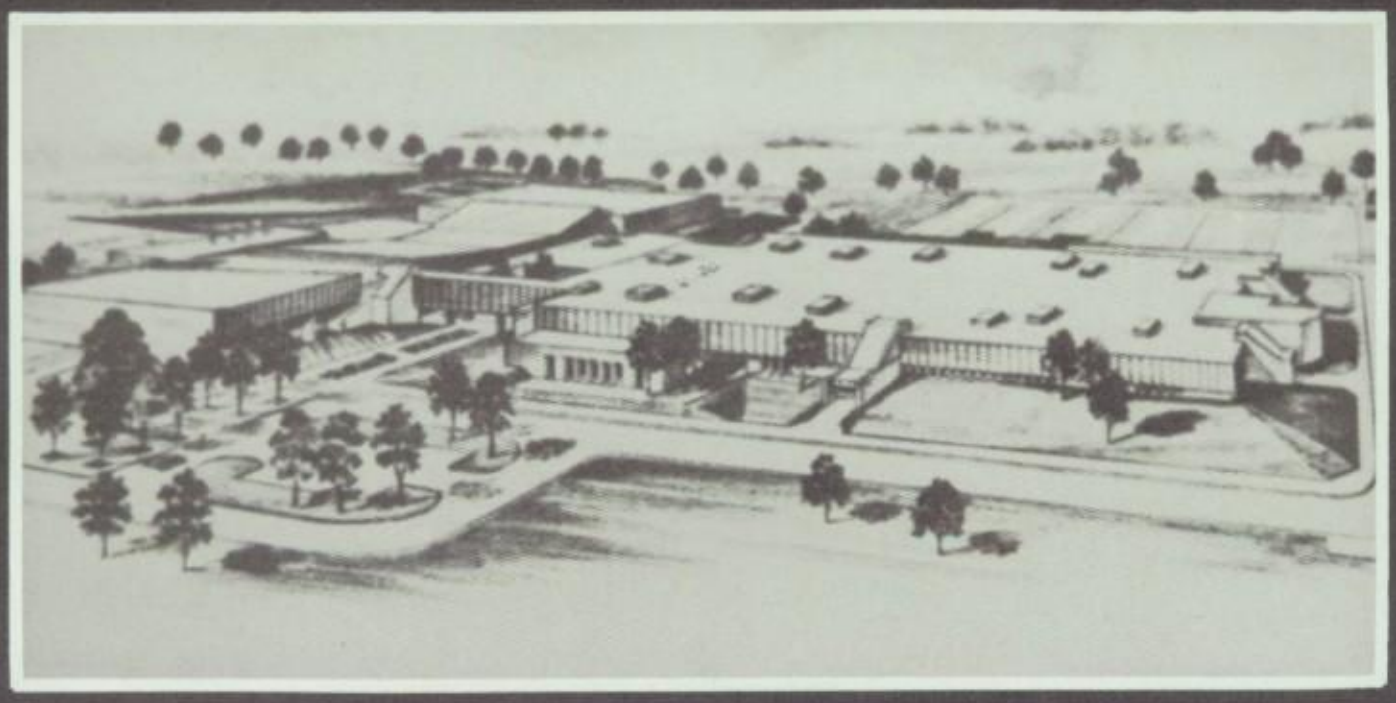
dedication



It has been ten years since the doors of Sterling Heights High School have opened, and we cannot help but appreciate and reflect upon what this school has given to us over the past decade. Sterling's staff and student body have seen many changes occur during these years. We must realize that the road to success can only be reached through these changes.

In the short time Sterling has been in existence, the faculty has experienced a number of changes in every department. Through these changes we have risen to the role of a pacesetter in academics. Year after year, we continue to produce an abundance of success bound graduates destined to acheive all their goals in life. As the school itself continues to improve, we can be assured that the quality of educarion will also continue to improve.

A countless number of distinct changes have been more than evident in athletics. Not only have we seen obvious changes in the coaching staff but also a change in conferences. As in the past, we still maintain the consistency needed to yield winning teams and individuals with pro potential. We have captured numerous conference championships by combining outstanding talent with intense desire to win. These championships have been shared with the spectators as well as with the athletes. Without fan support a team cannot expect to reach that high emotional level which is so vital to its success.

The change that is probably the hardest for us to envision is the change we experience within ourselves. It is easy for us to notice our physical changes, but how often do we take time to look at the changes that affect our morals, our feelings, and our emotions? We all see changes in those we love, just as they see changes in us, but we tend to look away from our own. It's as if we fear even the slightest changes in ourselves. This fear prevents us from seeing that changes are such a vital necessity to success. As we continue to mature, we slowly begin to grasp this vital knowledge and use it to our advantage. This is the true secret to a successful life.

We then, the 1981 Sterling Heights Yearbook Staff, dedicate this tenth anniversary edition to the past graduating classes; to Mr. Gordon, the founding father; to the devoted staff members; and to everyone who has been a part of the changes our school has undergone.

anniversary section

The 1981 yearbook cover design was rendered by Kin Yin Yu. The five stallions running represent the last five years at Sterling Heighrs High school. Their five shadows are representative of the schools opening five years. The largest stallion symbolizes this year. Since this is Sterling's tenth anniversary a light blue background was selected to project a silver anniversary image. The three stallions that are vague on the back cover represent the sophomore, junior and senior classes that make up our school.

In these next six pages you will find a small collection of some of the more predominant photos in Sterling's past yearbooks. Also there is a listing of the known sports records and people who were a part of the first decade at Sterling. We hope you will enjoy this attempt to portray our schools history, even though it barely scratches the surface of the events that have taken place here.

Student Occupational Services is a program for those students that are more work oriented than academically oriented and consists of a work and job related class experience. Classroom work consists of refresher units on pre-employment skills. Mathematics, income tax preparation, speed comprehension, reading field contracts, (field trips) with various occupations, and representative speakers, speaking to the class each week. The 80-81 program will tend to stress more heavily the three R's so as to better prepare students for the basic "skills testing movement" which many schools and employers are using to determine competency.

There are many different classes in choir a student may take at Sterling Hgts. High. These range from Beginning Choir to Accapella, the highest choir. In Beginning choir the students learn how to read music and, the basics of singing. In accapella, the students rehearse songs and perform at school functions such as concerts or different school oriented functions.

"The 1980 Stallion football team began the decade of the 80"s by compiling a 5-3 win-loss record against the toughest competition in our school's history. Our 4 and 1 record in the National Division of the new Macomb Athletic Conference enabled Sterling Heights, to finish second to the Conference champion – Sterling Heights Stevenson. Victories over Utica Ford, Fraser, and Utica Eisenhower highlighted the Stallion's five wins. Early season schedule problems, key injuries, and lack of offensive consistency contributed heavily to the three defeats. As the decade of the 80's continues, the Stallions will be striving to improve on their ten-year record of 57 wins and 36 losses and eventually represent the Macomb Athletic Conference in the state playoffs."

"The Stallionettes are number one in Macomb and Oakland County. They have a trophey in the show case to prove it. But to become number one you must give of yourself, not only during competition, but all year long. They are a loyal, giving, fantastic group of ladies. I hope they look back at these years some day and remember not only the hard work involved, but also the great times we have shared "my real people."

"Following the fine tradition of past cheerleading squads at Sterling Heights High School, this year's Varsity Cheerleaders have displayed spirit, dedication and support to our teams and athletic events. Their precision and extraordinary skills paid off well as their performance at the United States Cheerleading Association Grand National Competition in August, awarded them as the ninth highest squad in the nation. These girls have shown outstanding ability and leadership qualities that are a real asset to our sports program."

This years J.V. cheerleading squad can be summed up in one word: spirit. The girls developed the necessary skills and ability that led them to take third place in the nation among J.V. squads at the United States Cheerleading Association Grand National Competition. That's an accomplishment they can really be proud of especially since they were without a coach at that time. Since Nationals, they have put in many hours of hard work and practice, as they continue to be one of the nicest attractions at our sports programs.

seminar class underway by cindy mooty

Mr. Dittenber, Mrs. Lafer, and Mr. Shkourpa are once again in charge of the leadership Seminar Course, which is beginning it's second year of existence.

"This year is going to be great", begins Mr. Shkourpa, "Last year, as a pilot program, we had solved many of the problems that had arisen, and we had a good year, but this one is going to be even better!"

Every Wednesday and Thursday the class, which is derived from the "leaders" of the building, prepare materials for Student Senate class Council meetings (or even conduct the meeting itself), design or sell tickets to a school dance, or make their class showcases look their best; there is just no way to list everything that hits special class does for the entire student body.

The rest of the week is dedicated to formal instruction in several necessary areas.

Then again this year, the "leaders" are in charge of organizing, and cordnating all of the school dances, with one half of all the profits going to the Senior Class and the rest divided among the underclassmen. They also made the decision to have just disc jockeys, and no bands.

The Liberator had it's best staff headed by the editor, Cindy Mooty, and advisor, Mrs. Kuesner. Although her first year at Sterling, Mrs. Kuessner and the experienced newspaper staff all worked together to produce several of the best publications ever. Editor Cindy Mooty and Donna Schneider have both displayed their journalistic abilities, by having stories they've written, published in a nationwide high school paper.

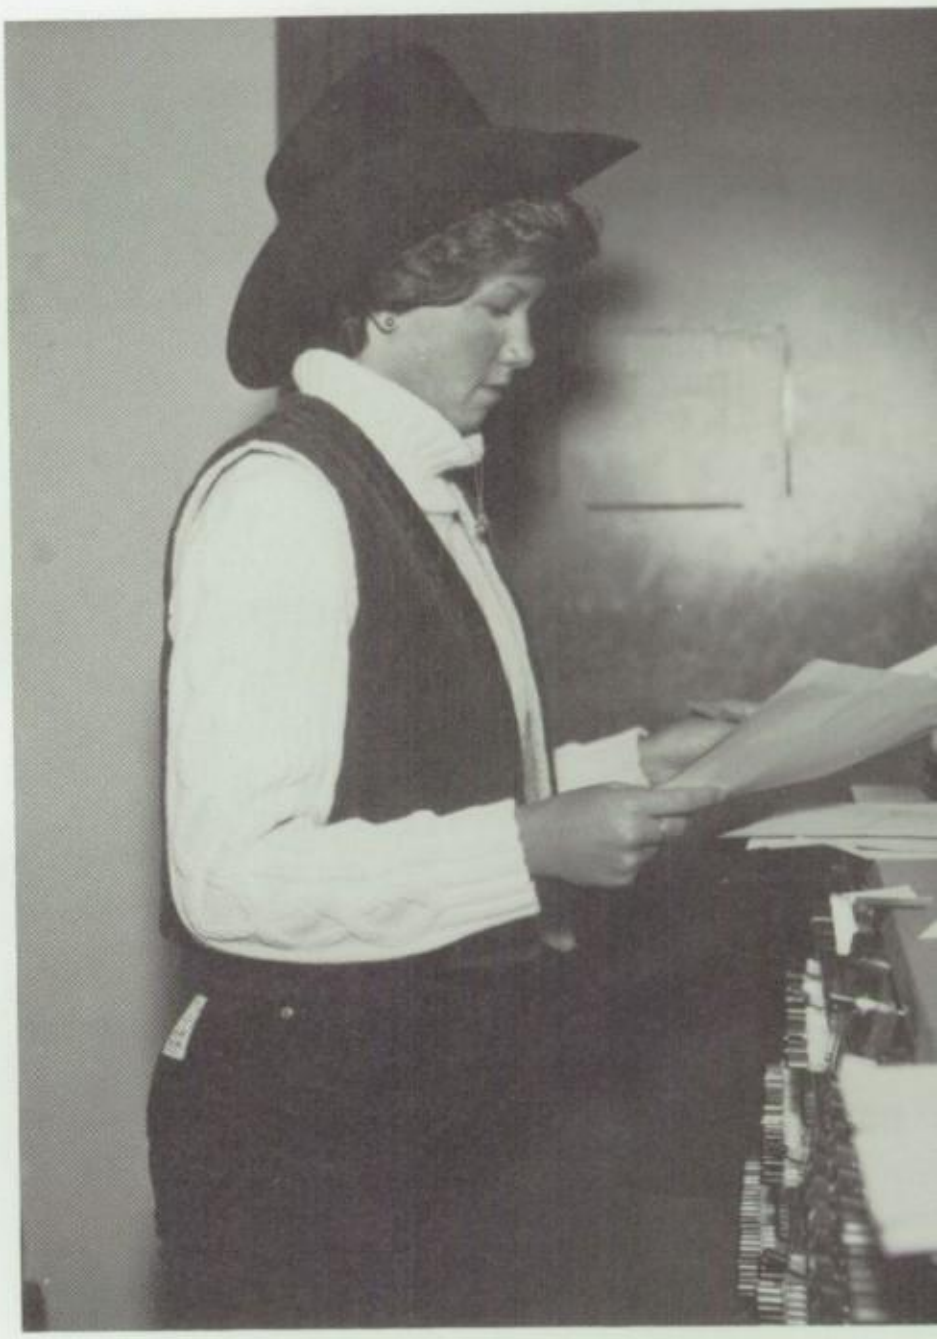
enthusiastic spirit week



At Sterling Heights High School, the week before homecoming has always been known as Spirit Week. This school year it fell on October 13th, through Ocotober 17th. The idea behind Spirit Week is to show your school spirit by participating in the week long festivities. Sterling's halls were filled with enthusiastic students participating in the following dress days: Monday was Stallion Cowboy Day, Tuesday was Punk Rock Day, Wednesday was Fifties Day, Thursday was Mickey Mouse Day, and Friday was Stallion Black and Gold Day.

The Homecoming game finally arrived after weeks of anticipation. Never giving up, the varsity displayed the true meaning of Stallion Prde as they came from behind to beat Cousino, 23-5.

The long hours of preparation put into each float were appreciated by all who witnessed "The Wonderfull World of Disney." Each class and organization awaited the day they would proudly parade their float around the track. First place honors were taken by the seniors in the class division and by the band in the open division.

The highlite of the evening was the crowning of the Homecoming King and Queen. All the members of the court shared the happiness of Dan Lenar and Debbie Cutlip as the two ewere crowned King and Queen.

The following day was nothing less then expected. Every Stallion had the chance to recuperate Saturday afternoon before attending the dance in the evening. The dance was a total success as couples enjoyed the music of Vintage. The fun did not end at the close of the dance, but only after each couple dined at the restaurant of their choice.

On October 24, a Halloween Costume Dance was sponsored by the Leadership Seminar class. It was the first of its kind at Sterling Heights High School and is sure to be a part of the future. Putting on a costume for Halloween brought back fond memories to the minds of many students. The response to the theme of the dance was so overwelming that there was little room to dance to the music of Mike Murri. This dance was enjoyed by all that attended and will be remembered throughout the years as the beginning of a tradition.

mr. and mrs. claus pay a visit to sterling at the christmas dance

4

On Friday, December 12th, Sterling students once again displayed their holiday spirit by attending the Christmas Dance. Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Claus, the short two hours of the activity sped by quickly, aided by the music supplied by Dance-With-Me Productions.

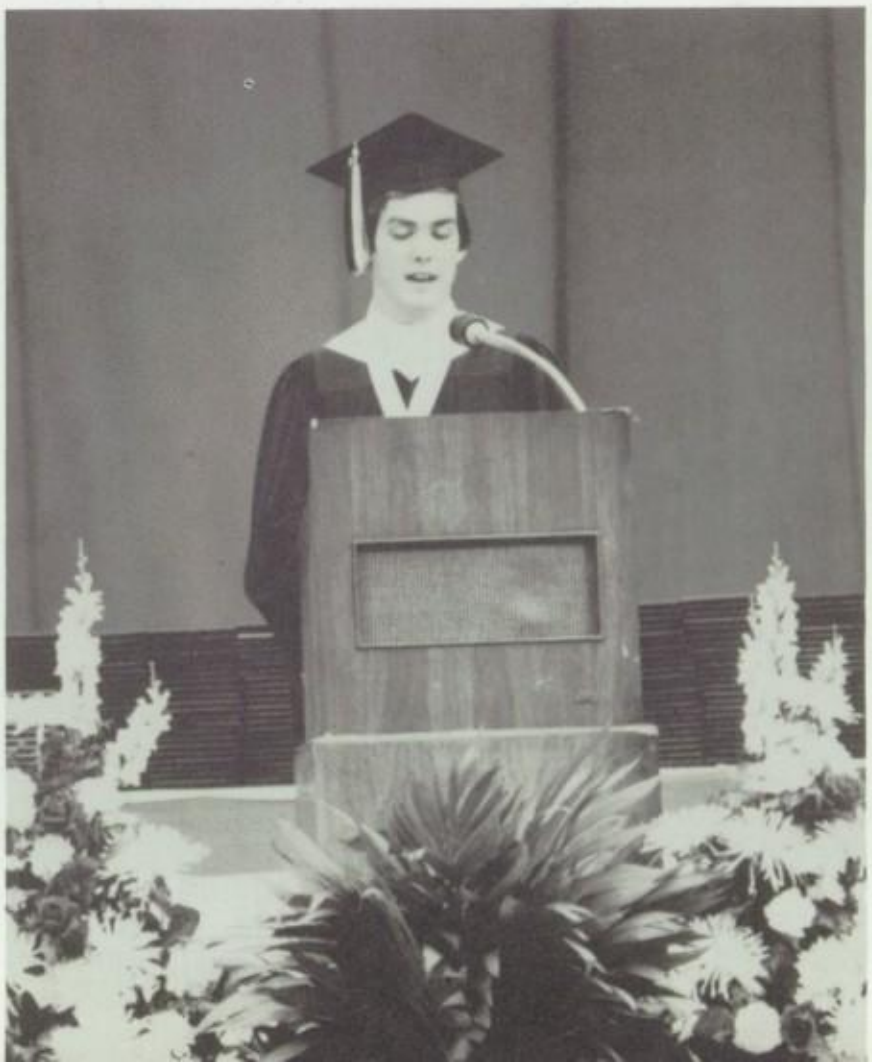
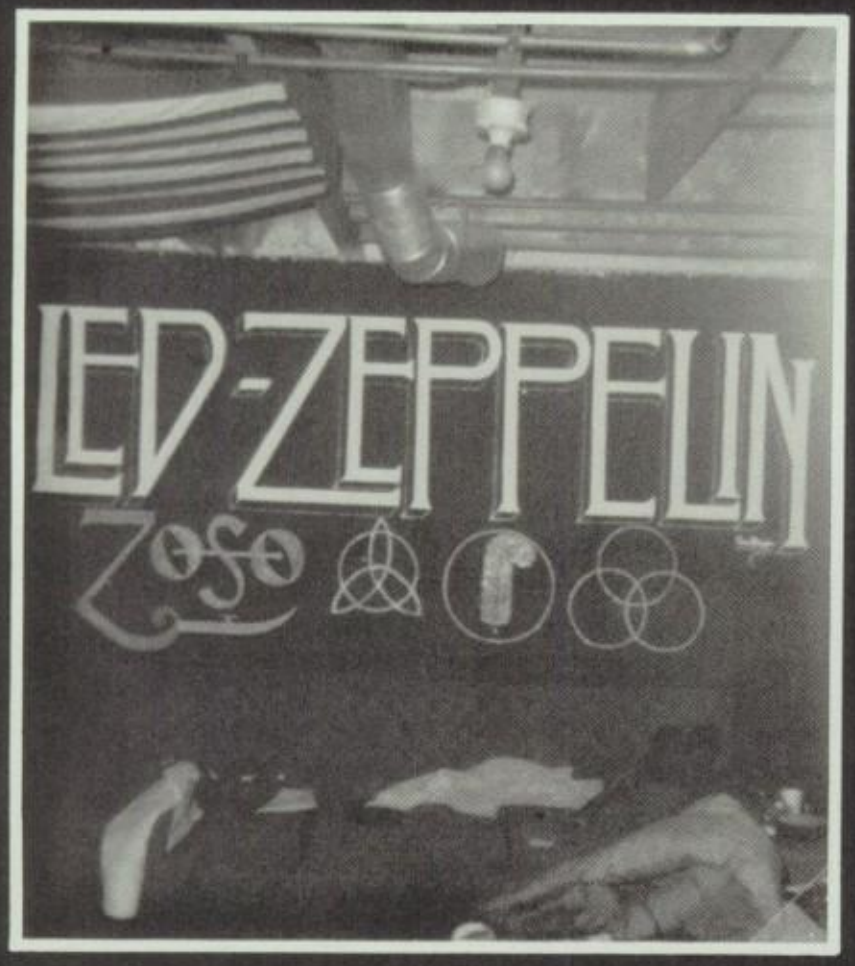
the famous final scene

On May 10, 1980, one hundred eighty-nine couples ventured to Oakland Community College for the Senior Prom. The evening was a unique occassion in which they were able to dance to the sounds of Contraband or to the music played by the disc jockey, Rich Hodder. Arter the Prom, couples gathered with their friends to wine and dine at the fine restaurant of their choice. The entire evening was nothing short of a total success.

The Class of "80" finally reached their long awaited graduation at the Pontiac Silverdome on June 8, 1980. A sense of accomplishment combined with feelings of sorrow and joy filled the air as each graduate's name was called. For some it was the end of a tiresome education and for others it was a stepping stone to the future. But for most, it was one of the greatest days in their lives.

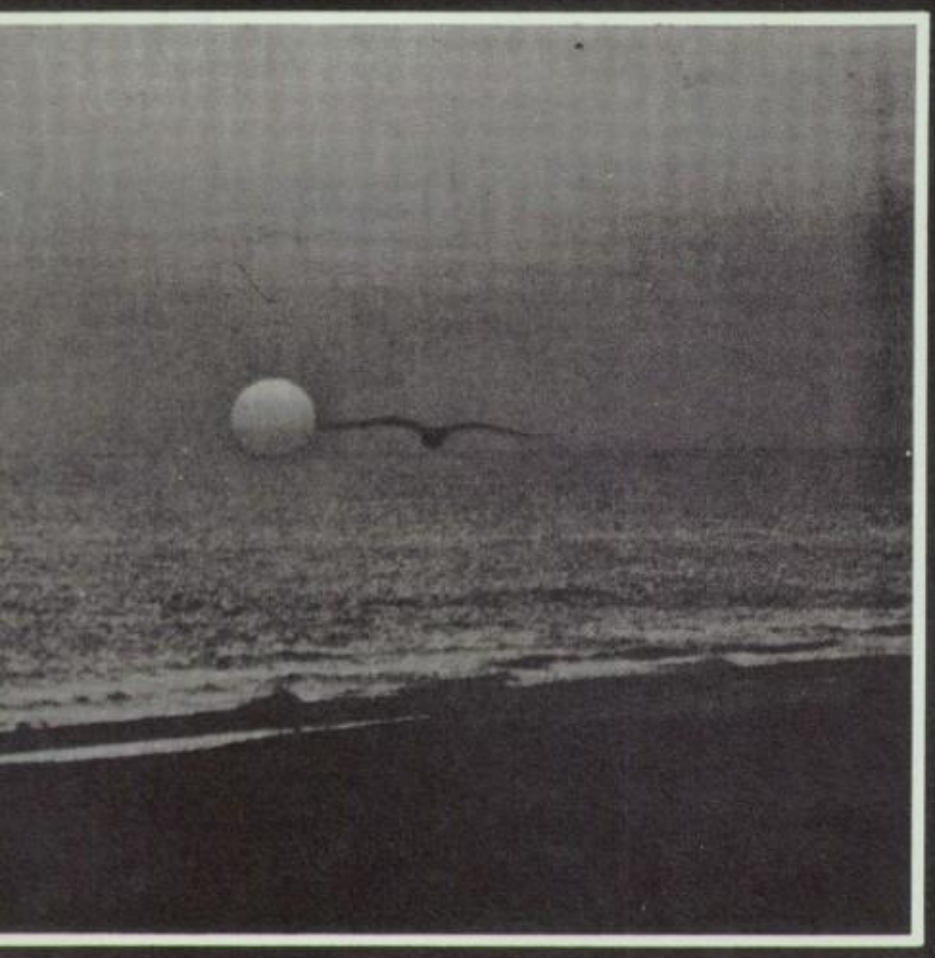




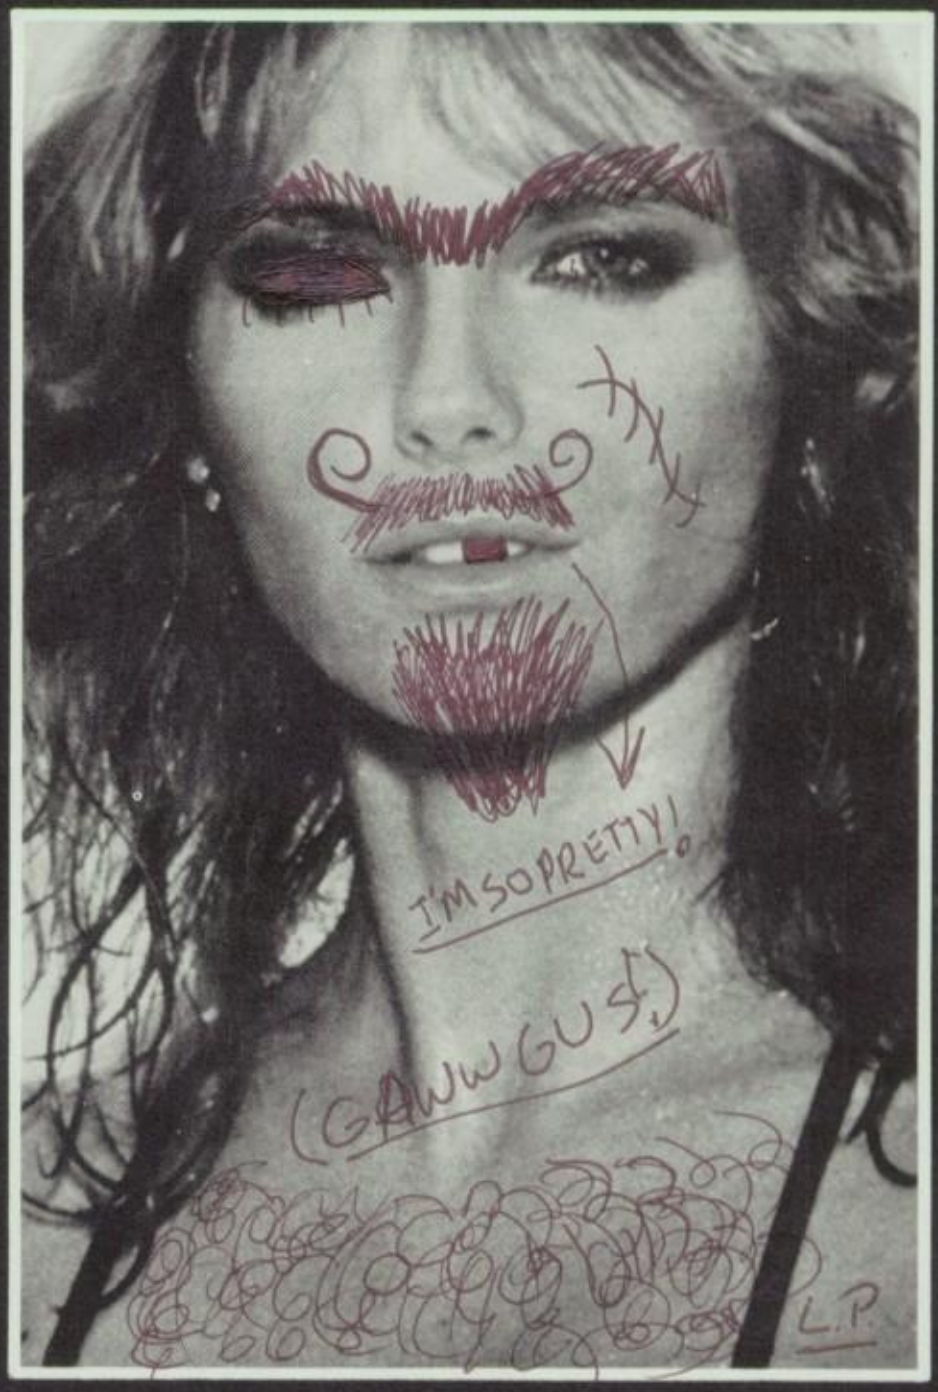
A Gallery to Remember

52 Hostages

"The 52 American hostages . . ." This was the phrase heard or read in almost every news story about the dilemma of the Americans held by Iranians since November 4, 1979. The number 52 (53 before Richard Queen came home) has tended to impersonalize the event, to obscure the identities of the people held so long in isolation. Now that an anniversary of their grim captivity has passed, it is appropriate to show here photographs of the men and women behind the number and to recall where they came from and what their roles at the American embassy were. Only 51 of the hostages appear in this gallery compiled from a variety of sources. For the 52nd, listed as Clair Barnes, no picture or U.S.

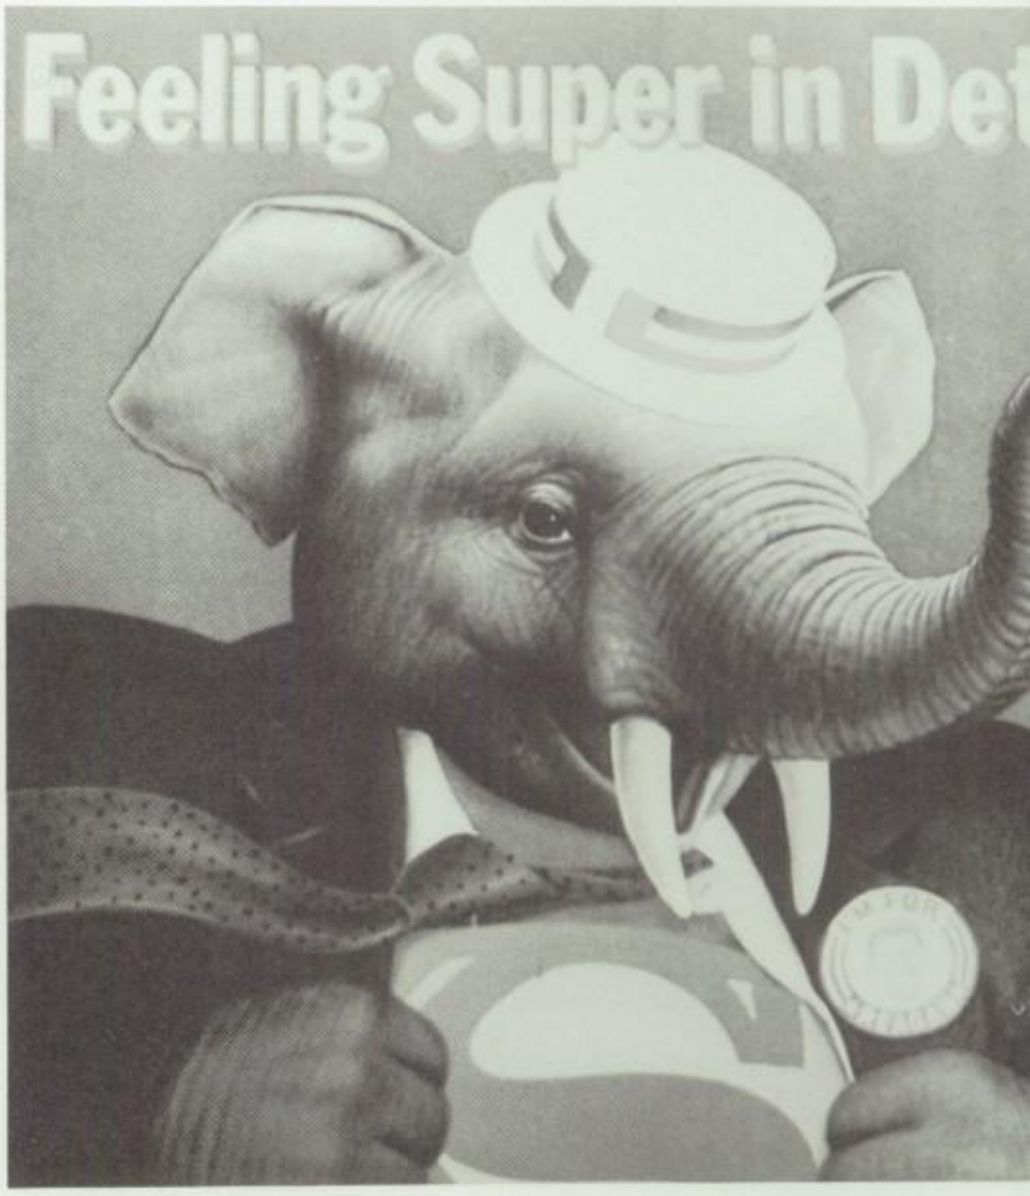


student life

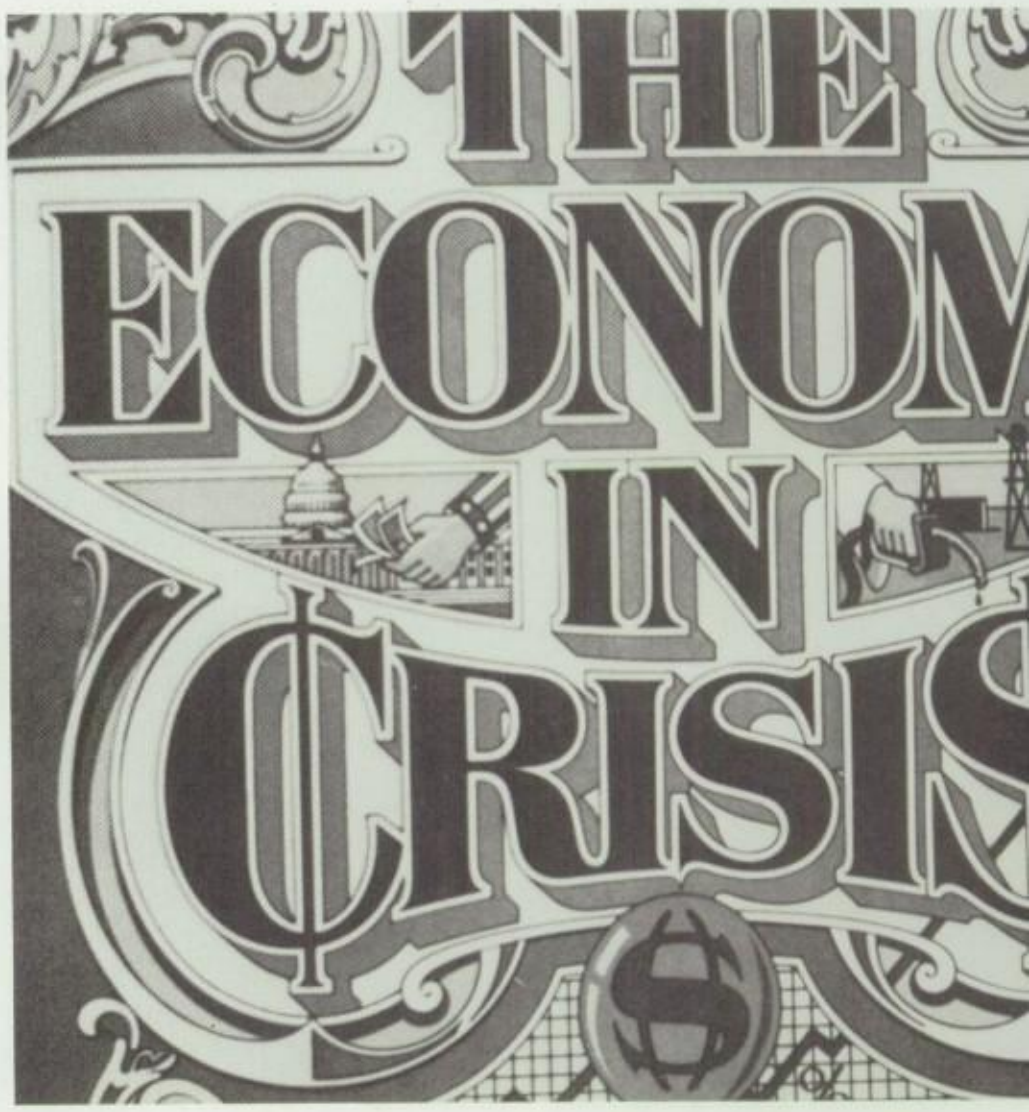


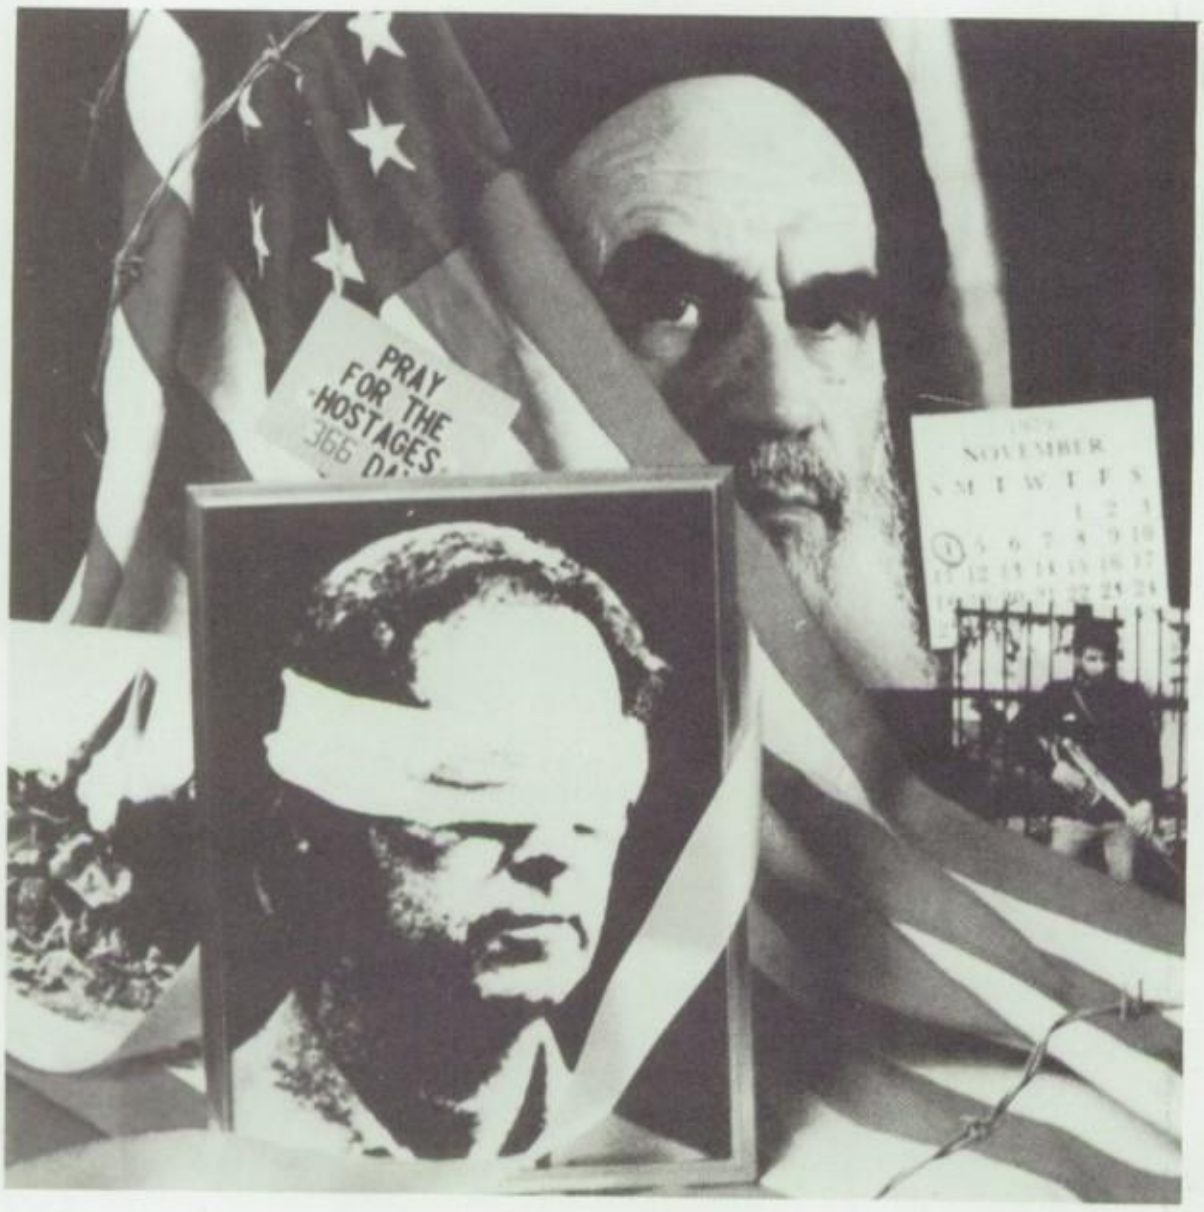
headlines both far and near

Amidst the crisises of unemployment and inflation, Detroit was met with the long-sought Republican Convention. The Renaissance Center and neighboring hotels, and restaurants, prepared for the hundreds of people the convention would attract. Shirts, towels, glasses, and buttons, were but a few of the items which met the presidential nominee, Ronald Reagan and all of which were dubbed with the logo of the Republican elephant.



The Republican Convention could not make up for the terrible times which greeted Michigan in the past year. A 12.5% unemployment rate, was the highest in the nation, obviously due to the withering of car sales. Chrysler remained to keep its head above water with more loans from the Federal Government and General Motors and Ford adopted the rebate to Compensate for poor car sales.





Day 444 and day one, all together, the end of the beginning of "an era of renewal." Bells pealed, sirens waled, and yellow ribbons fluttered everywhere. Blending campaign themes and Fourth of July sentiment, President Reagan saluted Americans tradition of liberty. He spoke of making America "the exemplar of freedom and beacon of hope." President Jimmy Carter was undenied the privelege of announcing the historic event, but was not exempted of the prestige he deserved for making the return a peaceful one.

President Reagan's crusade began with a star-spangled "can-do" confidence in a sermon on the Hill. This new born feeling of optimism and hope sent Americans into a "celebration of freedom", and a heroic return to nostalgic politics. President Carter subsided to the newly-elected president, with the farewell-to-the-union address, maintaining his respect and courage throughout the entirety of his speech. Indeed both these men have revealed courage - the courage it takes to assume the most influential position in the world.

An era of penny-pinching and belt-tightening has come, with the end, hopefully, accompanying the new administration. With inflation influencing the lives of All, many small businesses were forced to close, and the large corporations forced to cut excess costs. Unfortunately, these costs included the jobs of thousands of workers. The hardest hit was the blue collar industry, requiring all those layed off to go from the assembly line to the unemployment line.

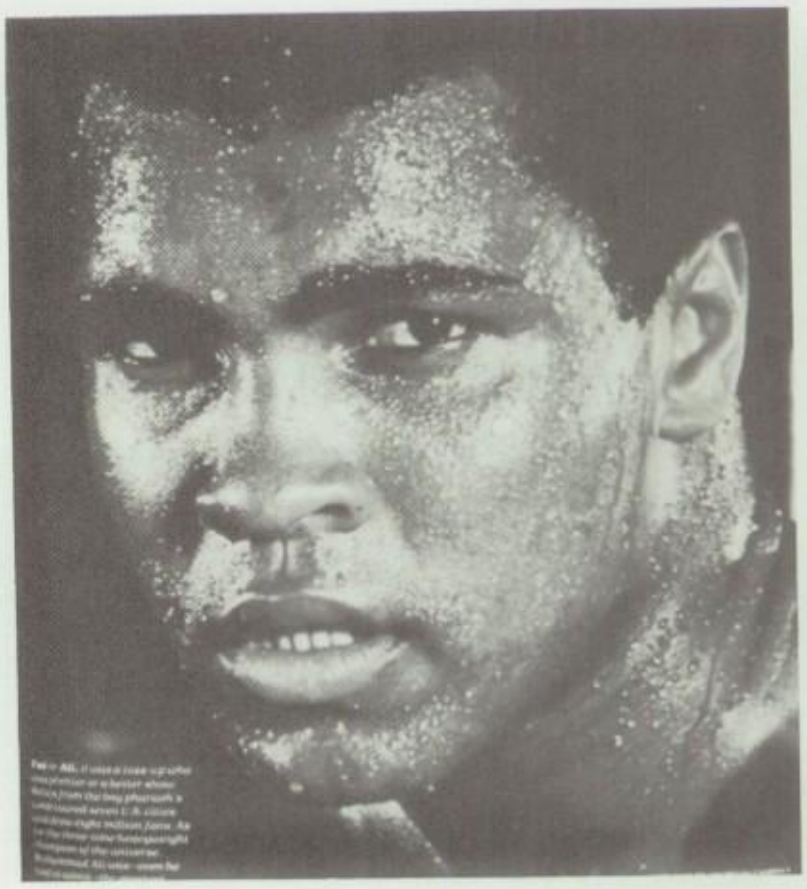
Or how about sex? Pretty good - hey?
Well I still think you the most perverted girl in school - so sex

the latest on the greatest

J.R. Ewing is the man that we all love to hate. Larry Hagman plays the deceitful, conniving oil baron, who attracted the largest television audience for a regular series. The accomplice for such high ratings includes Kristen Shepard (Mary Crosby) who, to our delight, gunned down J.R. last spring.



Muhammad Ali and Bjorn Borg are champions in the true sense of the word. Bjorn Borg, a native of Sweden, has shown his stature as a competitor as well as a player. Never complaining to the referees, Borg has won many big tennis titles, including four Wimbedon titles.

As for Ali, he may have lost his fight with Larry Holmes for the heavy-weight title, but indeed is the greatest, winning three times on earlier occasions.

Four years after the beatles broke up, hopes for reunion were shattered as John Lennon was shot and killed on December 8, 1980. Although the physical presence of Lennon is impossible, we will always remember him as perhaps the most talented of "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band."

As for bands that have recently gained recognition, AC-DC is always at the top. Lead singer Brian Johnson, who has replaced the late Bon Scott, along with guitarist Angus Young, has led the band to new heights.

Yoda, the 900 year-old gnome of the "Empire Strikes Back", helped to make this movie one of the most popular in the past year. However, Burt Reynolds and Clint Eastwood have made themselves the biggest movie stars of the 70's, due to their sexy, tough guy images.

. . . and where were you?

Where were you last Friday? Perhaps you were trying to escape the parking lot on a half-day, or maybe making your daily trip to the local gas station. Gas prices having soared to the unbelievable price of $1.30 to $1.50 a gallon, makes a mere trip to the fast food joint expensive. These gas prices however, do not keep the Sterling Rowdies from getting to McDonalds, Burger King or their favorite resterants. Like clockwork, Sterlings football and basketball fans rush to Mac's or Burger King to claim a good seat and a terrific time.

Another place you will always find a handful of Sterling kids is Showcase Cinemas. Whether the person you recognize is an employee, or just a movie goer, odds or there are plenty more where that once came from.

1

The seventies indeed, made up a powerful decade. From the ordeals of Vietnam and Watergate, to the peace of John Paul II and the befriending of two nations - Egypt and Israel, the 70's have never ceased to yield new highs and lows in human nature The following is a brief and summarized look at the past, and possibly a glimpse at the future.

1. '70 - Kent Srate Killings
"My God! My God! They're killing us." - Ron Steele
2. '77 Carter brings peace to Egypt and Israel.
"The barrier of distrust that has been between us during the last thirty years has been broken down in thirty-five hours. Amazing! Really!" -Anwar Sadat
3. '72 - Terrorist Strand Off
"We can not allow a handful of terrorists to destroy the nucleus of international cooperation and good will . . . the games must go on." - Olympic President Avery Brundage
6. '74 Nixon's resignation
"Watergate was worse than a crime, it was a blunder." - Richard Nixon
5. '71 Kissinger in China
"Kissinger has paved the way for normalization of relations between the United States and China." - Richard Nixon
6. '73 Vietnam excavation
"It has been a long and hard fight and we have lost . . . Saigon signing off." -last message to Washington during Vietnam excavation.
7. '78 Guyana Tradegy
"All we did was cry until we couldn't cry anymore." - Jonestown Survivor.
8. '79 Pope's Visit
"You got a Pope who knows how to Pope." - Protestant minister to Catholic neighbor during Pope John Paul II's visit to the United States.
9. '75 Apollo - Soyuz mission
"This indeed is a great moment for both our nations." - President Gerald Ford.
10. '76 Bicentennial
"Break out the flag, strike up the band, light up the sky." -President Ford.

THE CLASS OF 1981

animal

The seniors have selected the baby harp seal as their class animal. Although there is much controversy dealing with the slaughtering of these precious animals, the seals shows us that when the odds are against us, we still have the strength to carry on. The seal also symbolizes the innocence of the Class of '81.

One of the many high school traditions is the choosing of the class symbols. These symbols represent the class of '81. On this page you will find the choices that the seniors of 1981 have made.

This is a time in our lives
when we should think about our past Remembering the good times remembering the bad
The future that is ahead of us will bring us good and bad too
But the times to remember are the times in high school.

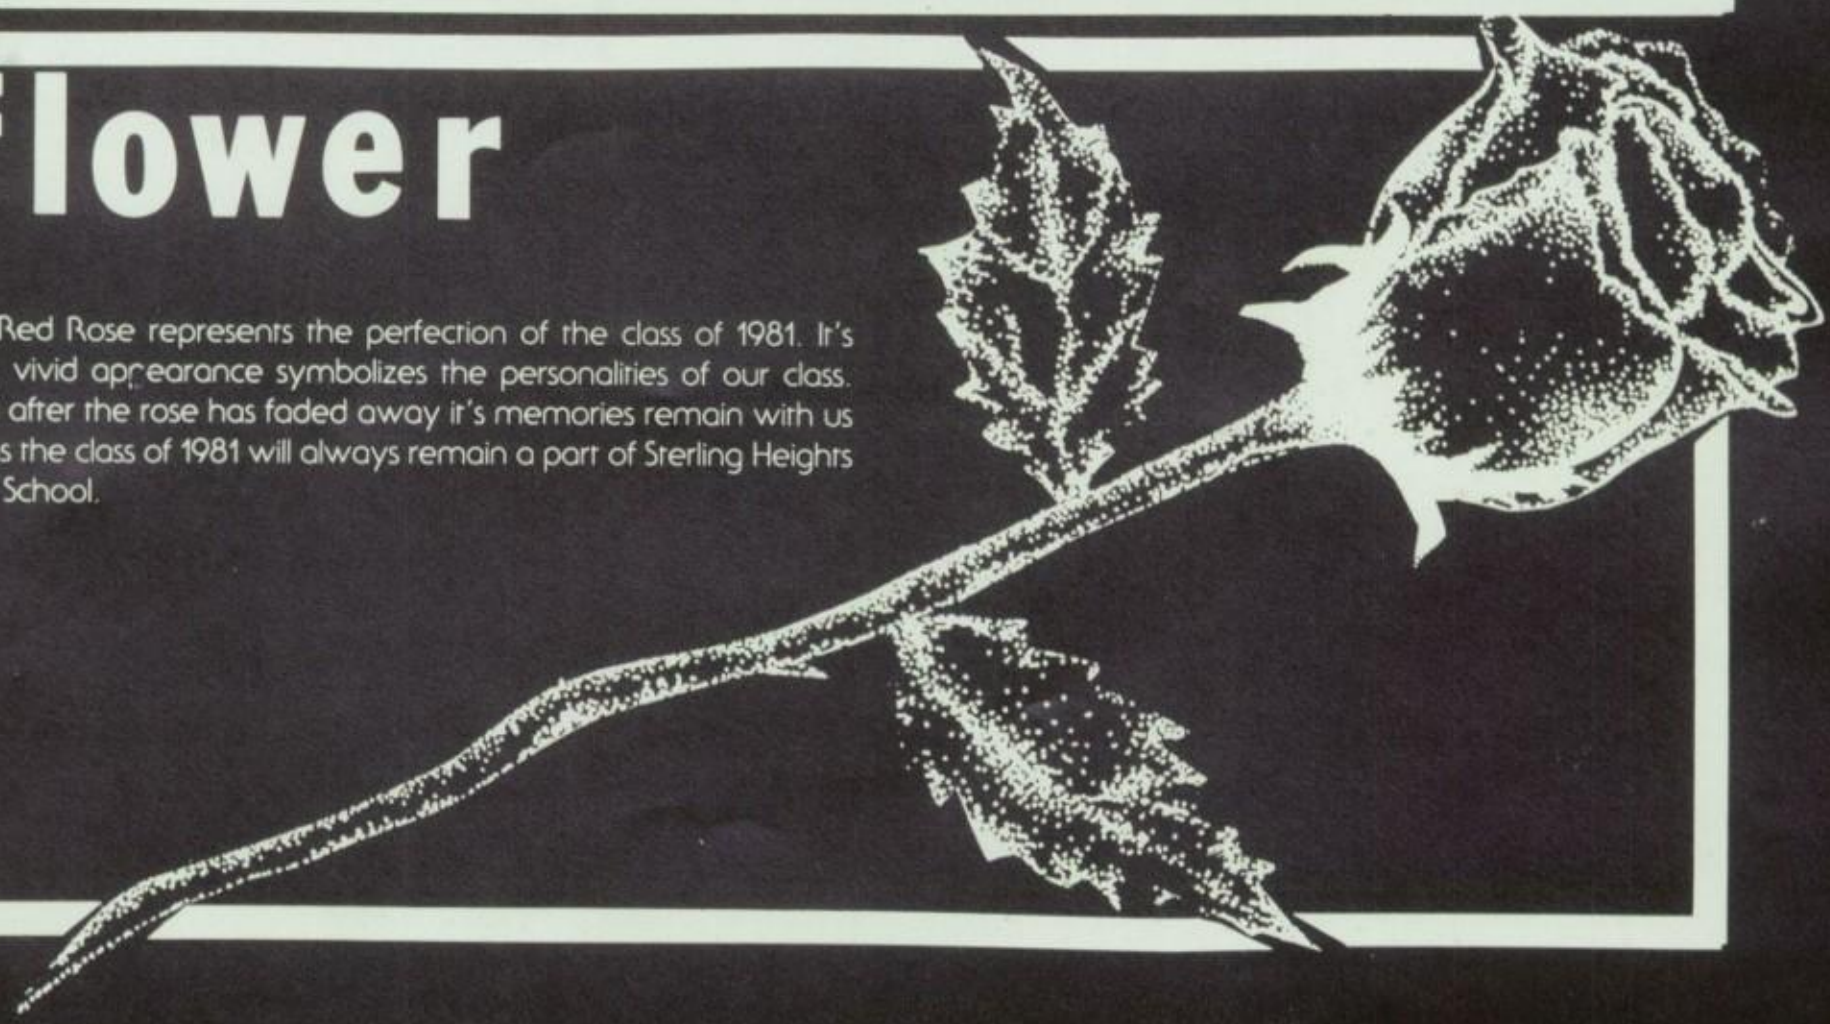
This motto is a perfect example of the Class of 1981. It rephrases the thoughts that lie in the minds of all graduates. Life after high school shall prove to be the greatest of challenges, yet, it is also a time to eagerly anticipate and enjoy. The graduating class will meet all situations, both bad and good, with, the courage it has maintained for the past three years.

song

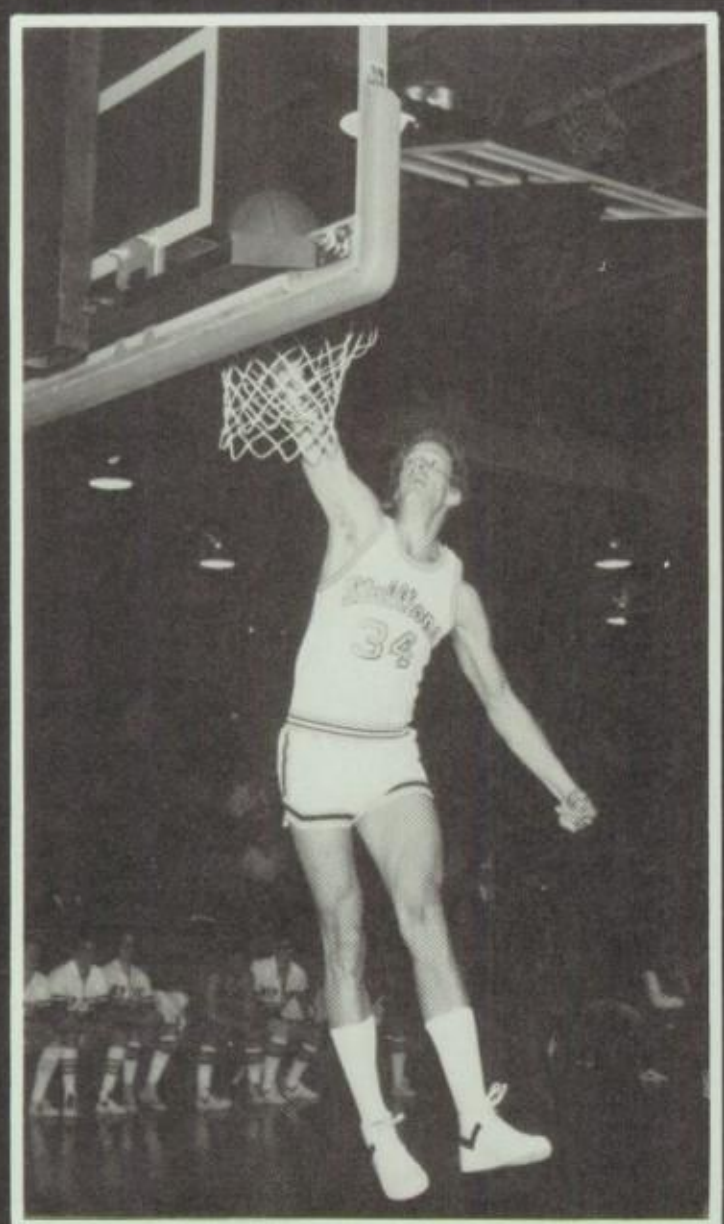
"Old Days" by Chicago was chosen to represent the senior class. This song will help recall all the good days that we had in high school. It's a song that will stay with us for a long time to come.

flower

The Red Rose represents the perfection of the class of 1981. It's bold, vivid appearance symbolizes the personalities of our class. Even after the rose has faded away it's memories remain with us just as the class of 1981 will always remain a part of Sterling Heights High School.

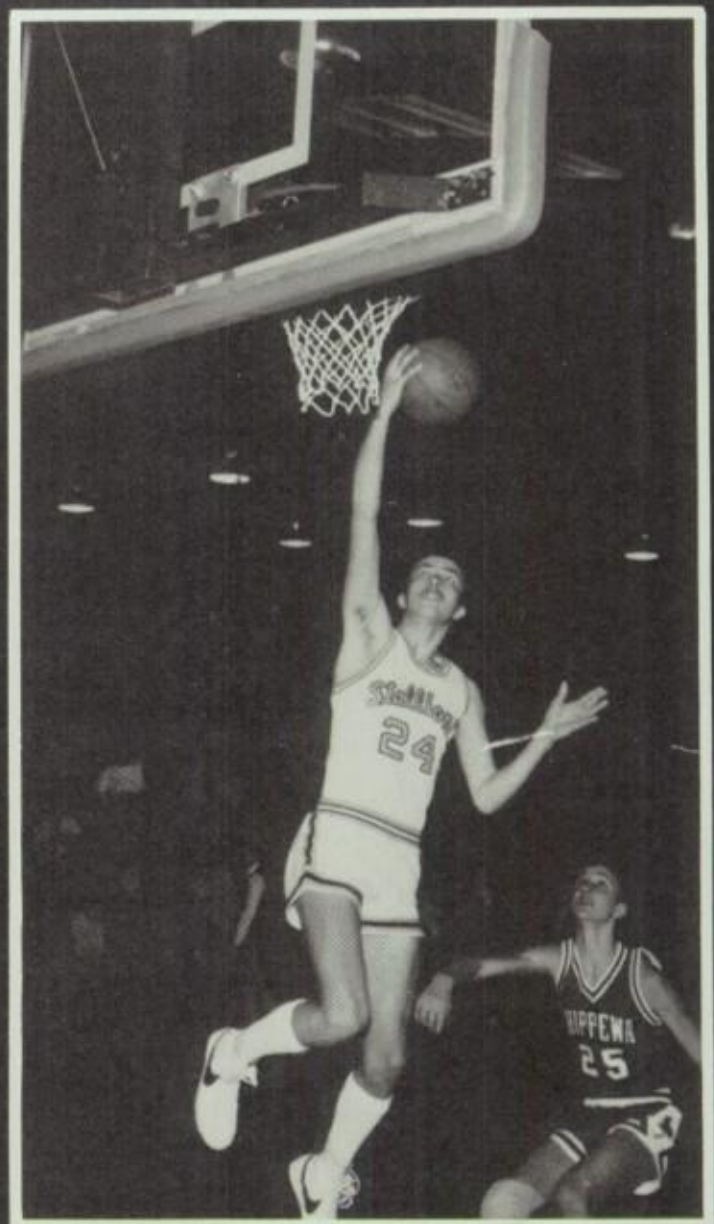


SUPER SENIORS



Six foot seven, center, Larry Polec (left) with an average of 21.1 prs. per gamed helped lead the Stallions to triumph. Larry has been playing varsity baskerball for the past 3 years. He has had offers from over 150 colleges around the United States. Larry has limited his selections to either Texas or Michigan State.

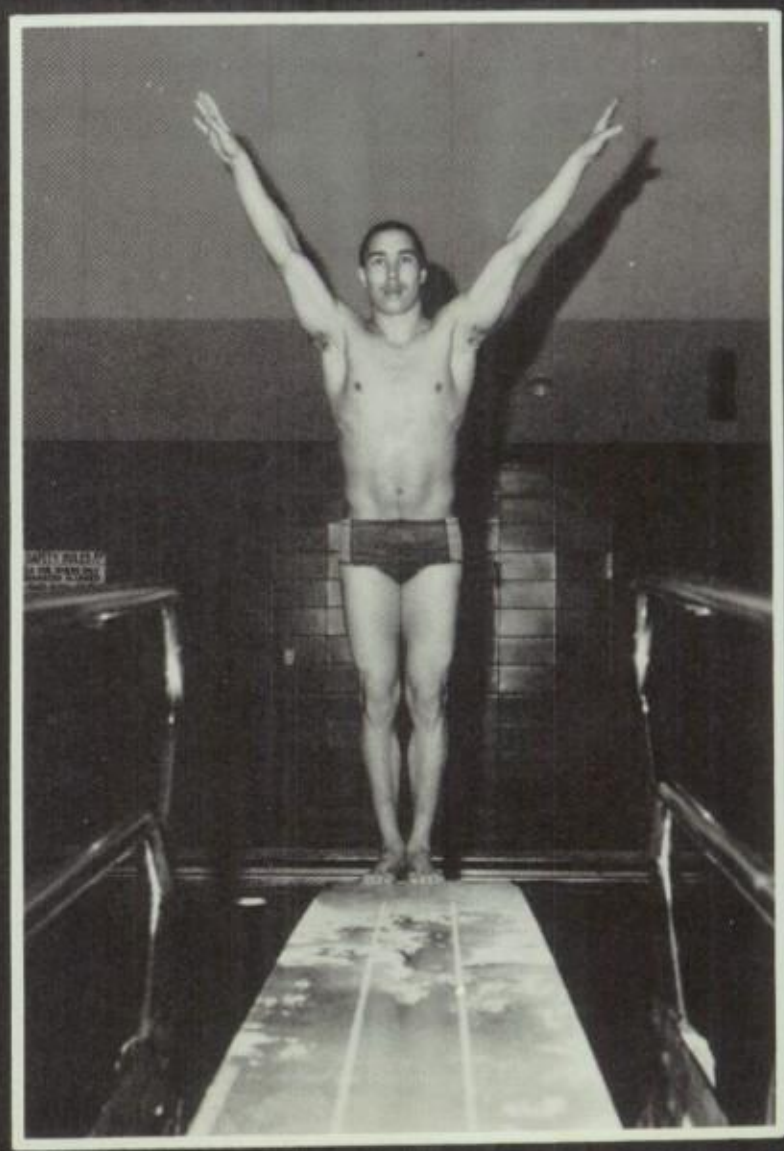
Brian Warner was another strong asset to the Sterling team. As of the middle of the season Brian has had an average of 15.1 prs. per game. Brian has had offers from 20 colleges but plans to attend either Wayne State, Lake Superior or Hope College.

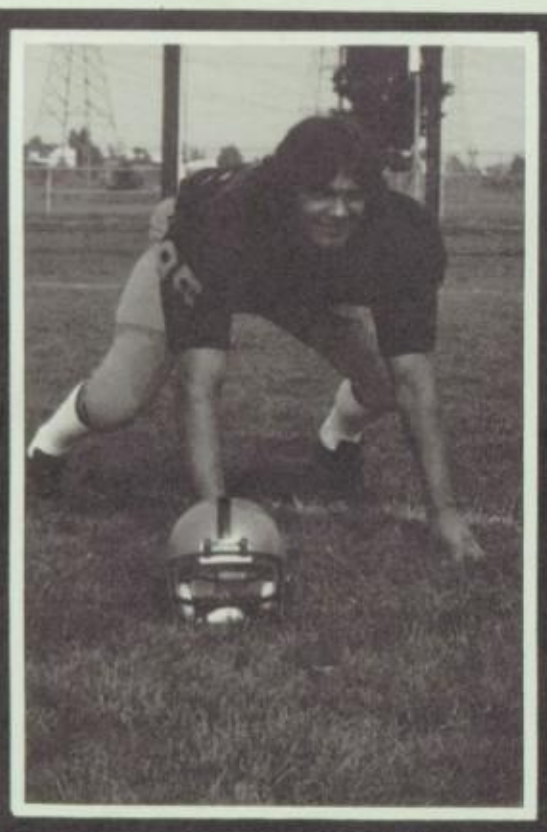


Stallionettes Linda Carenacci and Jodi Lenar have qualified for the past two years to try out for the all American dance-drill team in Ohio.

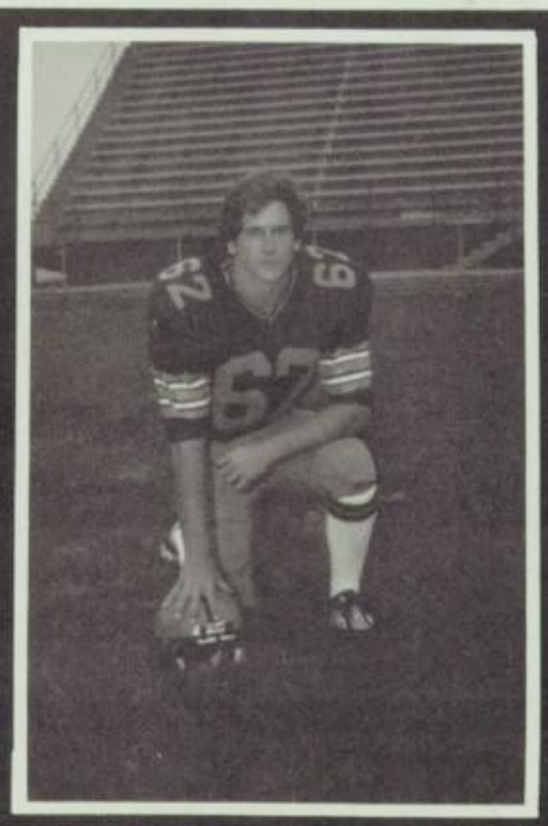
The class of 1981 is responsible for many outstanding individuals. Whether they be a star football player, a great scholar, an excellent actor, or just a senior. It's not one person alone that makes up the class of '81. It's the whole class, from the teachers to the students. On this page you will find only a small portion of the great kids that helped the class of '81 get where they are today. These kids gave a part of themselves and in return they got much out of their high school years.

Holding the school record of 284.85 is Mark McClellan, Sterlings best diver. Mark holds a pool record at Fraser of 254.60. Mark competed at the Macomb County Invirationals and placed first. He also qualified for the Detroit News meet in Grand Rapids and was ranked 18th in State. After graduation Mark plans to attend either Eastern or Ferris State.

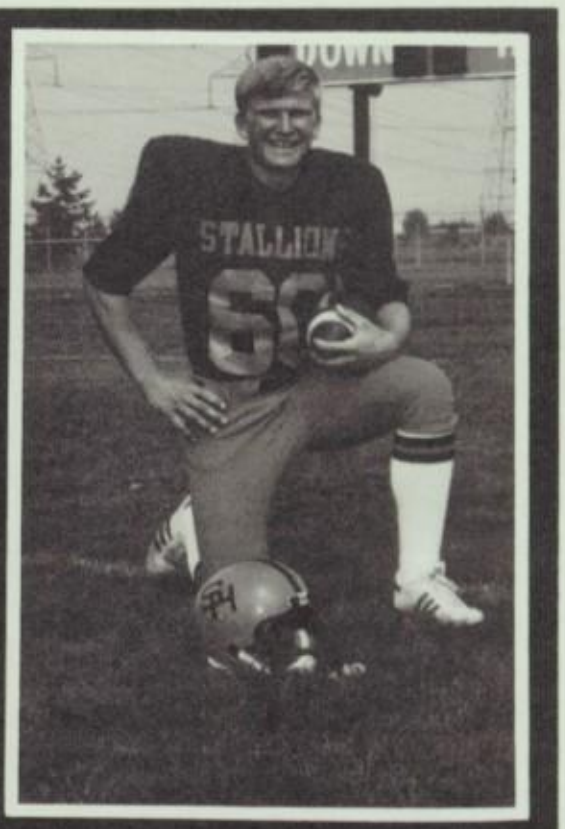




Defensive tackle Bob Smerecki helped to pathe the way to many of Sterling's victories. Bob's abilities have been acknowledged and he has been selected for the following: 1st team all stars, 1st team all Metro East, 1st team all conference, 1st team all Macomb, all advisor, all league, all state honorable mention, and all suburban honorable mention. After graduation Bob plans to attend either Ferris or Wayne State.



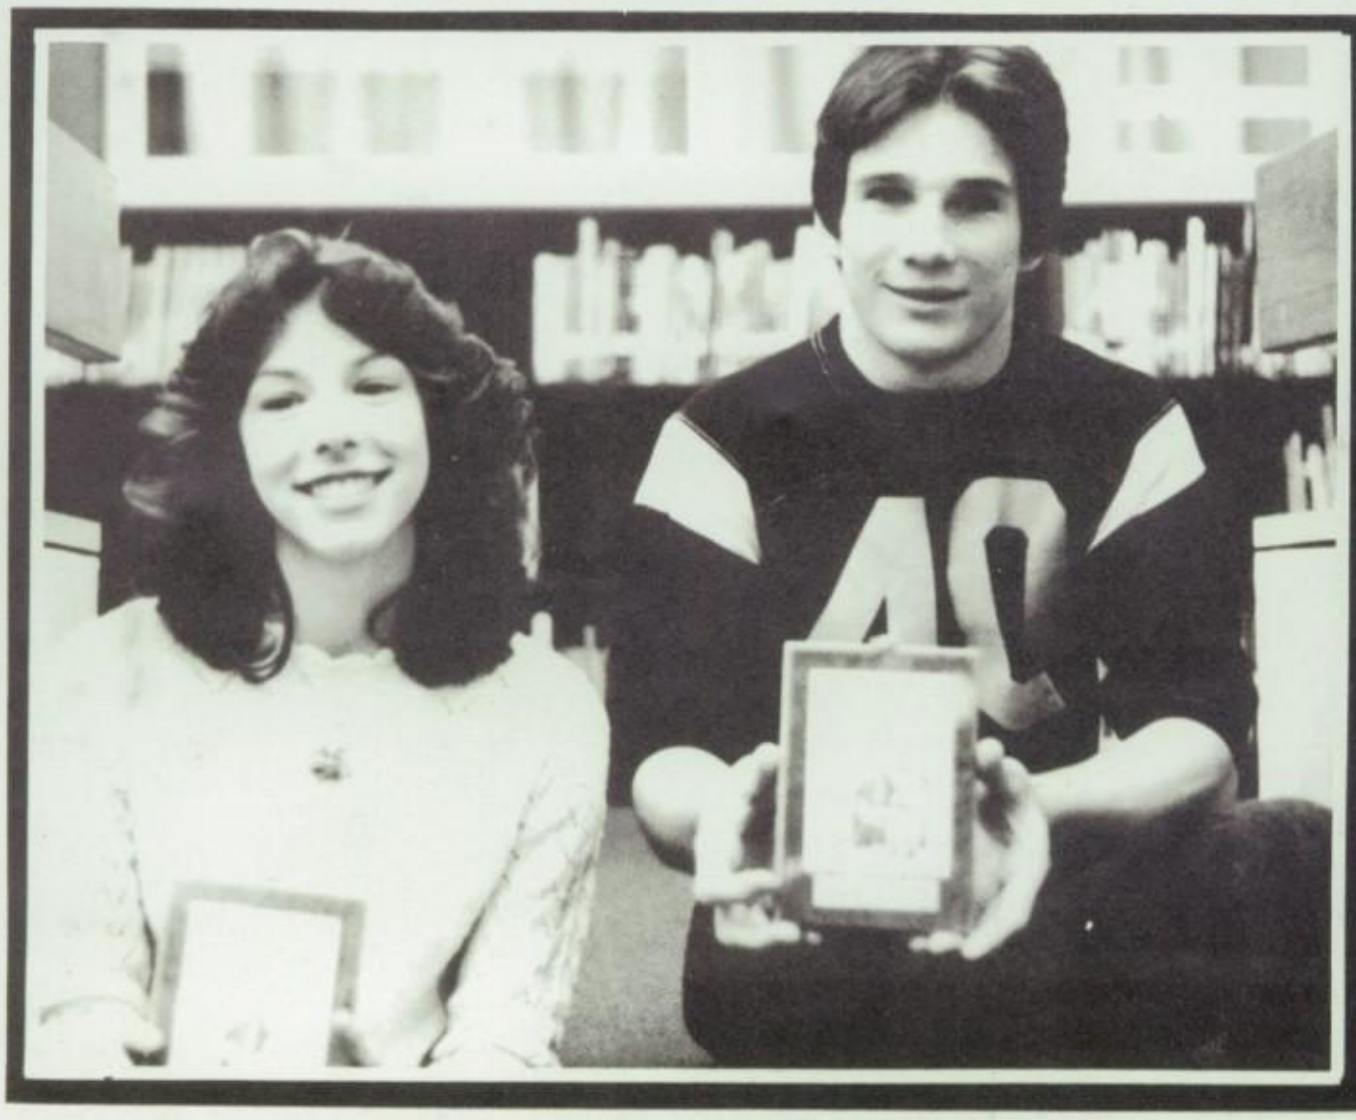
Linebacker Frank Zischerk is another one of Sterling's outstanding football players. He has been selected as: 1st team all conference, 1st team all stars, 1st team all Macomb, all advisor and all league. After graduation Frank will attend Oliver on a scholarship.



Offensive guard Jim Popko is yet another one of Sterling's strong football players. He has been chosen for all conference, all advisor, 2nd team all stars, all county honorable mention, and all Metro East honorable mention. As of now, Jim is still undecided about which college to attend.

Sterling's Cross Country team went to state for the 2nd. consecutive year. They were ranked 2nd. in conference, 3rd. in regionals, 2nd. in county and 3rd. in the conference triangular meet. They were led by Jeff Kay, the teams most valuable runner, Mark Adams and Dale Young added to the seniors efforts with a strong support of Junior Runners behind them.

Wrestler Stan Burzinski had an impressive comeback from his extraordinary efforts last year. Stan placed 2nd in conference 2nd in county, 1st in districts and 4th in the regionals. His accomplishments were well appreciated by other team mates.



Kathy Sawchuck and Jay West were chosen to receive the optimist Award for the 1980-81 school year. This award is given to them for their outstanding assets as students on the whole. It is given by the staff and administration.

Far away there in the sunshine
Are my highest aspirations.
I may not reach them,
But I can look up
And see their beauty,
I can believe in them
And try to follow
Where they lead me
Until I find the Gates of Tomorrow.
But until that day
I can keep the beautiful Memory of the Class of
"82" Junior Ring Ceremony.

ADVICE

My boy be easy with your friend to him be very glad to lend,
Make smooth his way when'er you can
Don't tell his faults to any man
Spare him your censure, shut your eyes.
To little flaws which may arise
But in your search for fame or self,
So not be easy with yourself.

For others have a gentle way;
forgive their sin when'er you may
But with yourself be strict, Make sure that fault if yours shall not endure.
See yourself each trifling flaw,
and make yourself Okey the law.
Overlook the wrongs which others do,
But never blend yourself to you.

Although decent might win your fight, compel yourself to do whats right of others weakness never speak
But do not let yourself be weak.
Have pity for the many woes,
Which every man around you knows
But when a trial comes to you,
Be glad that you can see it through.

Keep conscience always as your guide and by its whispering abide.
Be lenient and kind of heart, utter no speech which leaves a smart
But always wheres ov'er you turn
Remember with yourself, be stern.
Be strict in all you say and do,
Not with your neighbors, but with you!
Edgar A. Guest

Nan,
I'm so glad I met you in Janiers class last year but it was in Bolla's class that we really became closer. We've only been able to go out and do things a few times but they were great. I really hope that we get a chance to go out a lot this summer. I really think you're a great friend and thanks for helping me through my dilemma. ~~boys~~ Guys are jerks (at least from this school anyway) you're a really super sweet and very pretty girl, so don't worry about anything. You had better call me alot so we can get together with Teresa and Laura.
K.I.T.
264-8317
Love ya always,
Andrea

Nancy,
It's been great sitting next to you in Accounting. You always would have something to say to break the monotony of Mrs. Collins boring lectures. It was very interesting to hear your problems about Brian and I hope I helped you out with some of my thinking. (I don't think I did though.) Nancy, thanks very much for trying to cheer me up when I encountered my problems near the end of the year. I also appreciate the fact that you did care. You have a good personality and get along with whoever you meet so I don't see any problem in the future for you. Good luck in track and in school next year. I'll be back to see some of the games and hope to see you there.
Love Always,
Keith '81

[illegible] Well, this has been one year. A lot of things have changed - some things good and the others not so good. The thing that upsets me most is what has happened to you, me, and Kelley. We've always thought we would be the best of buddies all throughout high school. Nan, no matter what, I don't ever want to lose your friendship. We've had our share of arguments but we always worked them out. Out of all my friends, I'd have to say that you and I are the most alike. I can always talk to you about anything. I mean that sincerely. If I had everything to do over, believe me, it wouldn't have ended up the way it did. I guess what I'm trying to say is that I wish things were the way they used to be. I know you and Kel think I've deserted you both but I haven't. I honestly miss all the fun we've had but I promise it won't be like that next year. We are going to have the greatest times - together. You mean a lot to me. You're a special friend, even if you might not believe it. You've got everything going for you, Nan, and I admire you. Don't ever give up. I know you won't because of your never-ending determination. I wish you all the luck in the world, now and always. Prepare yourself for next year because it'll be one you'll never forget. Take care and I will definitely see you over the summer. Buddies forever-
love always
Mary

Nancy,
The good times we had last year carried into this year and I hope the same for '82. You're a super person and it's been really great knowing you. I wish you all the best as a senior and I really hope I see ya over the summer. Take care and have fun!
Love and happiness,
Laura Jesswein

Nancy,
I must say you are my best buddy. Without you I would have been lost this year, you helped me through many of my weekly depressions! You made basketball and track the best for me. I'm so glad you didn't play baseball, just think if you would have you wouldn't be going to state. You are a real gifted athlete and you should be very proud of yourself -- I am! (Proud of [illegible] not [illegible]) We have shared many special times together most of which were hysterical and I'll always remember red, white & blue and our gallon of orange juice! With you I have my best times and thats no lie. I hope your troubles are solved shortly because I really sympathize with you, but I'm sure they will work out for the best because you've got to be a doctor deal [illegible] the 2nd I'm the first!! HA HA Nancy, your friendship is something which I feel is special and I hope we always stay this close. I know that both you & I are alienated from the rest of those girlies but don't (sorry) ever think you can't talk to me because I'll be there whenever you need a friend. I know this sounds korny, but it's all from the heart. I'm looking forward to a great summer.
Love you,
Kelly

[illegible]

Nancy,
your a super sweet and cute girl.
Ya know, I really dont know what to say except, I wish we could become as close as we use to be, but only friends this time! I know that we both kind of try to ignor each other, but lets try to not let that happen!
Nancy, I want to be good friends, cause your special to me, So Dont be a stranger!
Lets atleast be friends, Well,
Good Luck in everything you do! (BASKETBALL, TRACK!) And have a super Summer! Hope too see you over the summer!

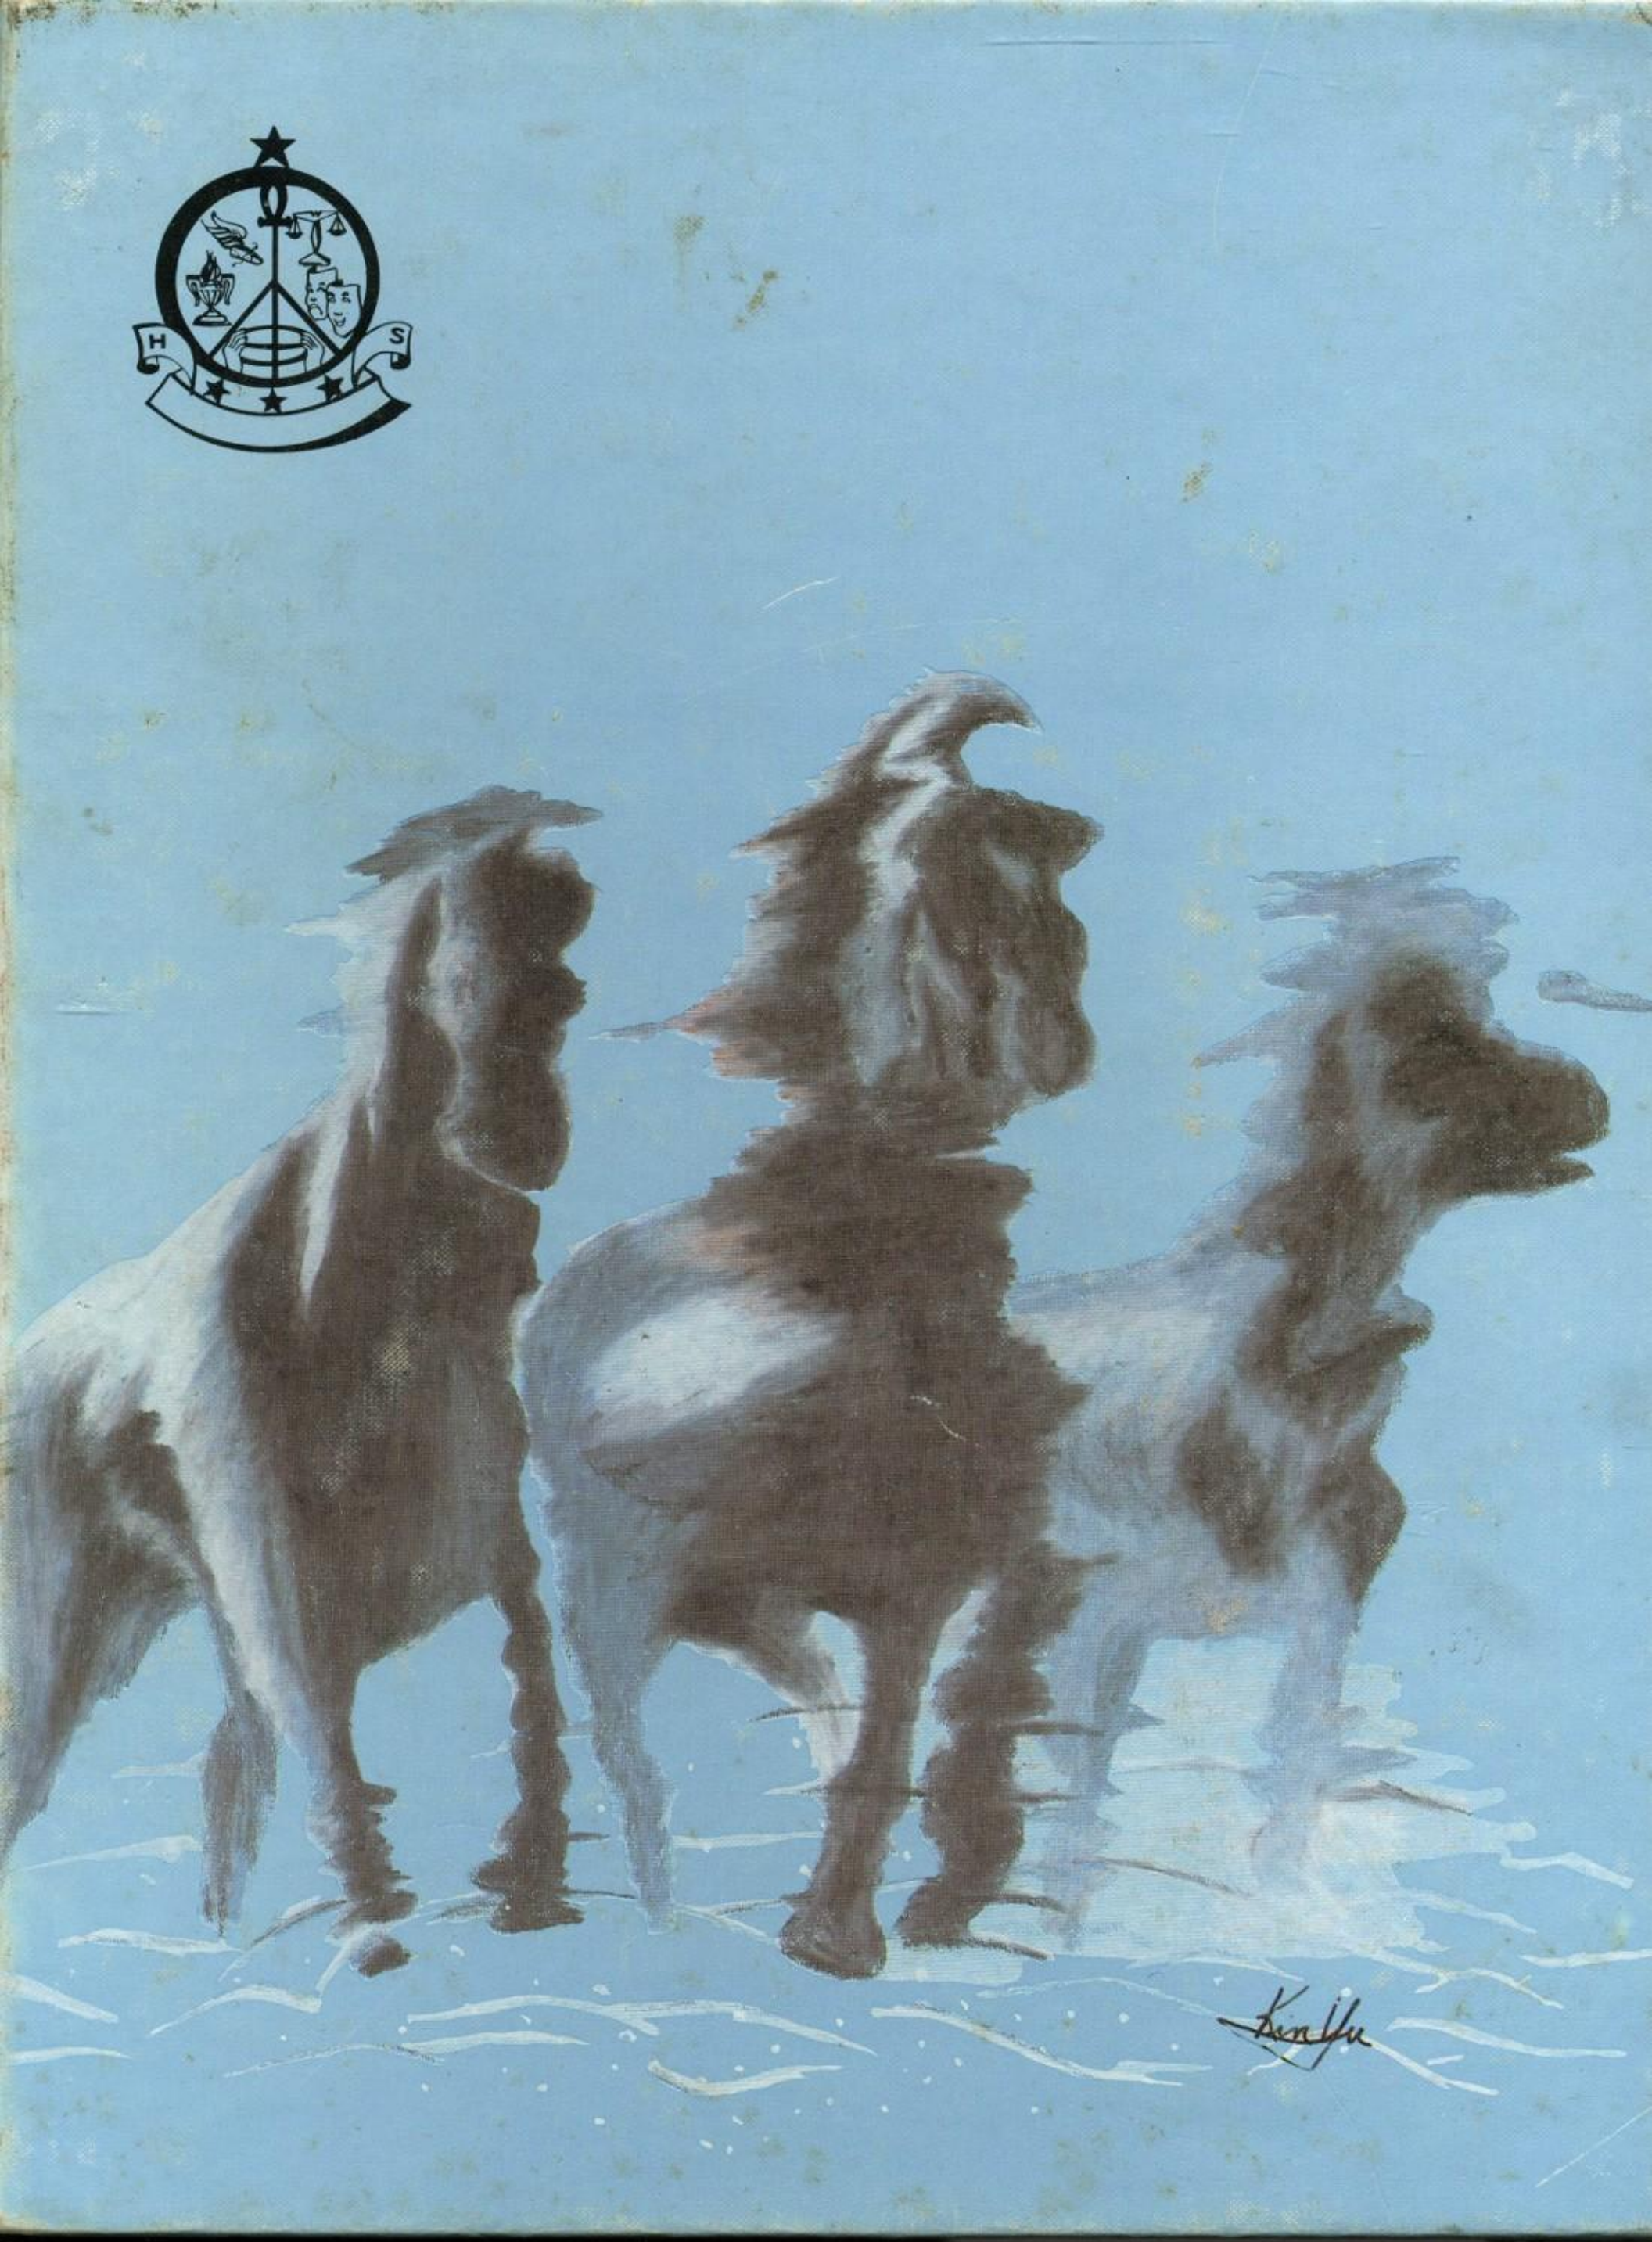
P.S. stop by sometime and see MY Dog!

Love,
Joe Manzo

Nancy-
I'm not going to start off by saying how sweet and cute you are because frankly its a lie even if you are (just joking). Really you are though.
I was going to write something else in your book, but I decided not to but I could show you what it was: To one of the little people without whos deepest devotion there would be no me. Cute, ha! Thanks for being such a grand friend. your Idol,
P.S. you have a cushy - - -!
Kathy Koman

P.S. Too bad we couldn't get to know each other better, but that's your loss.


Nancy,
Boy, I have the honor of signing next to Joe!! I want you to know that I'm always willing to talk about anything. This may sound ignorant, but I think the incident that happened two summers ago has brought us closer. We really haven't fought since then. Pretty good, huh? I consider you one of my dearest friends. You'll always be on the top of my list. You are finally getting out there in the world. (Have fun with the De Lasalle guy. He seems like a very nice person. When are we going to go cruising Gratiot. I'd like to meet some cute guys for a change. Well have a super Summer + Senior year together!!
Love, Norma
